The remainder of the program consisted of toasts, as follows: 'In the Wilderness," responded to by Capt. Robert Herron; "Petersburg," by John M. Wallace; "Appointtox," by Charles Hunter; "Our Fallen Comrades," John D. Vautier; "The Prisoners of War," Col. Mass, and Frank Murphy closed by telling what he knew of "The Sick Call." The following officers were elected at the business meeting: President, Col. George E. Wagner; V.-P's, James G. Clark and Samuel G. Boone; Sec., John D. Vautier; Treas., James Hague. A committee was appointed to collect subscriptions to erect an elaborate monument in addition to the three that now mark the positions of the regiment on the battlefield of Gettysburg. On arrival at Wheeling, present this certificate as soon as possible to the Committee on Transportation, who will properly indorse it. With this certificate indorsed, on presentation to the ticket agent of the railroad a return ticket will be issued for one-third the fare paid coming to Wheeling. These certificates are not transferable. See to it that the ticket agent from whom you purchase in coming, gives you a certificate and fills it out properly. Certificates cannot be obtained after coming here. Every possible effort will be made by the Committee of Public Comfort to provide accommodations for all who may attend at the least possible expense to each one, so that no one need deny himself the pleasure of coming to the greatest and grandest Reunion ever held in the Ohio Valley. Those intending to abide in tents should bring a blanket. Plenty of clean straw will be provided, and accommodations for several thousands will be found in the buildings on the fair grounds.
